

British Railways Board - Mobile Track Assessment Section

During 1990 a study was undertaken to conduct a review of the Mobile Track assessment Section of British Railways Board and to produce a number of recommendations in relation to the Technical Output and Organisation of the Section.